N.Y.H.C. is the first feature length documentary to explore the New York Hardcore music scene.

Drawing its roots from punk rock, hardcore has evolved into a dedicated, self-contained movement, unconcerned with success in the mainstream. This documentary follows seven bands in the summer of 1995, ranging from Bronx inner-city youth to Long Island suburbanites to Hare Krishna devotees.

N.Y.H.C. is a surprisingly in-depth and non-exploitive look into a vital and often neglected music community.

For the legendary documentary's first time on DVD, this 2-disc set updates it to the present day with an entire disc of all new material, including "Where Are They Now?" interviews shot ten years after the original documentary, flashbacks of key venues, and previously unreleased live performances of iconic songs.

"The whole MTV generation... it makes me sick."
-JIMMY GESTAPO (MURPHY'S LAW)

"How long have I been into New York Hardcore?
I'd say since I was around 7 years old."
-FREDDY MADBALL (MADBALL)

"When I first started getting tattooed
my mom was kind of happy
because rather than spending
my money on drugs,
I was straight."
-RICK TA LIFE (25 TA LIFE)
